

Climate Change for Trade Unionists

PCS is hosting a workshop created specially for trade unionists by the Climate Outreach and Information Network (COIN), working with Ruskin College. COIN is the leader in the field of communicating climate change. Ruskin College is recognised nationally for its track record of education for trade unionists.

ruskincollege
learning to make a difference

Saturday 19 September

10- 4pm

Brunswick Methodist Church,
Brunswick Place,
Newcastle upon Tyne
NE1 7BJ (see map below)

All welcome
Refreshments available

Climate change and the green new deal

During the workshop, you'll work in groups around the big ideas for the future.

- What is climate change and why is it the next big issue for trade unionists?
- What kind of policies should trade unionists be fighting for?
- How do we keep jobs in industries that are high energy?
- What are the benefits of a low carbon society?
- Is climate change about social justice?

Directions : exit station, go over zebra crossings and walk right along Neville Street. Turn left up Grainger street. At top of this street you will come to a local landmark — Grey's monument. Brunswick Methodist Church , is to the left of Monument Mall shopping centre (located behind Grey's monument). Head for the Newcastle FC shop and go down the alley to the left of it.

To register contact Richard Leitch at richyleitch@yahoo.com or call the PCS Northern regional office on 0191 222 0330. Places are limited so let us know as soon as possible if you want to attend.