

An evening with Sharyn Lock who will be talking about her new book

Gaza: Beneath the Bombs

Wednesday 17th March, 6.30pm

W
Waterstone's
DISCOVER
SOMETHING NEW

The Israeli offensive in Gaza was described by Amnesty international as '22 days of death and destruction'. Defying an international press ban, Sharyn Lock's eye witness blogs became crucial reading for anyone following the conflict.

Sharyn's candid and dramatic accounts provide an important glimpse behind the media black-out, of Palestinians who face their oppression with courage - and humour.

Refreshments will be available on the night.

Waterstone's, 93-97 Albion Street, Leeds LS1 5AP

This is a free event, but please book in advance, to ensure the event goes ahead.

Signed copies can be reserved if you cannot attend although they may not always carry dedications and cannot be guaranteed.

Please call 0113 244 4588 for more details.