

Capitalism Makes You Sick

10am – 4pm Saturday 30th April 2011

The Quaker Meeting House
School Lane, Liverpool
(Next door to the Bluecoat)

Capitalism Makes you Sick

Films and discussion about protecting people and the environment.

A participative day of short films and discussion about the struggles of victims of corporate killing, and those fighting to protect our environment.

Sessions will begin with short contributions from (confirmed participants):

Communities Against Toxics, Families Against Corporate Killers, the Hazards Campaign, and Merseyside Asbestos Victims Support Group.

This event is part of the Liverpool City of Radicals festival and in celebration of INTERNATIONAL WORKERS' MEMORIAL DAY: REMEMBER THE DEAD. FIGHT FOR THE LIVING 28th April every year.

UNIVERSITY OF
LIVERPOOL

