SQUATTING IN THE NETHERLANDS AFTER THE KRAAKVERBOD

October 1st 2011 will mark one year since the Kraakverbod made squatting illegal in the Netherlands, but hundreds of people still squat and will continue to squat.

With squatting in the UK coming under threat, join us to hear 3 squatters from Amsterdam talk about squatting before the ban, resistance to the criminalisation and what's been happening since the Kraakverbod became law.
